

INDIECOLLECT

Celebrate New York Archives Week at IndieCollect!

IndieCollect is co-hosting two film scanner & restoration demos with Women's Film Preservation Fund, a program of NYWIFT (New York Women in Film & Television).

Friday, October 20, 3:30pm

Monday, October 23, 3:30pm

IndieCollect

675 Third Avenue @ 42nd Street

32nd Floor Penthouse*

New York 10017

The IndieCollect team will demonstrate its 5K Kinetta Archival Scanner and show before & after comparisons.

- Learn how scanning, editorial & color-grading work flows vary based on scanned elements (e.g. single strand negative, A&B roll negative, CRI, prints).
- See samples of films currently in our restoration pipeline.

RECEPTION TO FOLLOW

Wine & Cheese Reception from 6-7pm

EVENT CO-SPONSOR

The Women's Film Preservation Fund (WFPF) is the only program in the world dedicated solely to preserving films made by women. Founded in 1995 by New York Women in Film & Television (NYWIFT), WFPF has preserved more than 120 American films, including works by early feminists, women of color, social activists and artists who represent a unique and irreplaceable part of our nation's cultural legacy. Titles saved by WFPF include Barbara Koppel's Harlan County USA (1976), Cinda Firestone's Attica (1974), and films by Lois Weber, Alice Guy Blaché, Maya Deren and Mary Ellen Bute.

rsvp@indiecollect.org

Capacity limited to 30 people! Lobby security requires presentation of photo ID.

*There is no elevator to the 32nd Floor. Please take the elevator to the 31st Floor, then turn left to take Staircase B up one flight. There will be signage directing you to the IndieCollect office.

SAVED DOES NOT MEAN SEEN

Copyright © 2017 IndieCollect, All rights reserved.

Want to change how you receive these emails?
You can update your preferences or unsubscribe from this list